The University of Valladolid

The University of Valladolid is one of the oldest in Spain, its origins dating back to the end of the 13th century. The first written reference to the university occurs in a document signed by King Sancho IV of Castile in the year 1293.

It is also one of the most important centers of higher education in Spain: it has more than 100 degree courses, 80 doctoral programs (14 of which merit a special mention for Excellence) and 68 postgraduate degrees (43 Master’s and 25 Specialist’s degrees), and galleries.

Valladolid, a charming city

The City of Valladolid offers a special appeal for international students thanks to its heritage and its cultural and university tradition. It is a medium-size city - quiet and safe - and provides a pedestrian-friendly atmosphere. With around 1,000 years of history, Valladolid’s city center contains an interesting array of ancient monuments, old houses, palaces, churches, squares, avenues and parks, as well as wealth of museums and galleries.
Coursework

The program cornerstones are two courses, INED 7781: Culture for ESOL Instructors (3-Credit hours), and a special topics course on Case Study Research Methods (6-credit hours).

Students in INED 7781, the first of three ESOL Endorsement courses, will have the opportunity to explore issues of culture, identity and teaching English as an additional language while immersed in a new culture and language context. They will complete the 3-credit hour course within the two weeks that they are in Spain (similar to Maymester) due to the organization of the formal and experiential course time.

Students in the special topics Case Study Research Methods course (6-Credit hours) will examine in detail all the steps involved in the design and implementation of case studies. Students will be asked to design and develop a small - but complete - case study emerging from their experience at the University of Valladolid. This way, the study abroad will constitute the fieldwork for the final assignment of the course that will be assessed online during

Cost: The estimated cost of the program (depending on exchange and flight rates) is $2700

Itinerary

We will arrive Madrid on June 4th, Spain’s Capital city.

We will then travel to Valladolid, which is a couple of hours North.

During the 2-week stay in Valladolid we will visit Ancient medieval castles, Roman aqueducts, museums, 13th century libraries and the well-known tasty tapas will also help students experience the culture of the Kingdom of Spain. We will return to Atlanta on June 18th.
