한국의 해
YEAR OF KOREA 2009-2010 (Fall Calendar)

Lectures will be held in Nursing Building Room 109 every Thursday from 3:30-5:00 pm unless otherwise noted.

8/20  From the Fire: Contemporary Korean Ceramic Exhibit Opening Reception 5-8pm, Exhibit will run from August 20 - October 8, 2009.

9/3  Fifty Wonders of Korean Culture and Art, Sarah and Shelly Tyson, Korean Spirit and Culture Promotion Project

9/24  "Korean Ceramics of the Goryeo Dynasty (918-1392)," Robert Mowry, Curator of Chinese Art at Harvard University's Sackler Museum

10/1  "Students talk about Korea," Panel of returned study abroad, Korean and Korean-American students

10/8  "Historical Overview of Political Journalism in Korea," 김신동 Shin Dong Kim, Professor of Communication, Hallym University, Korea

10/9  "Hangul Day, Brown Bag Presentation on the unique Korean alphabet," by Eric Kendrick, Georgia Perimeter College, 12:30pm, IGI Conference Room WH 226

10/14 – Year of Korea Day 12:30-2:00pm – featuring Gayageum (short performance), Dae Han (Tae Kwon Do demonstration), KSU Tellers (Folktales) and Food-tasting. Gazebo

Gayageum (full performance) featuring the Korean Association of Zither Musicians, 8:00 pm, Bailey Performance Hall

10/15  "Korean Traditional Music" (lecture), Heesun Kim, Ethnomusicologist, Adjunct Professor, Graduate School of Education, Kookmin University, Korea

10/22  "Rediscovering Traditional Korean Culture through Film," Hyangsoon Yi, Associate Professor, Comparative Literature, University of Georgia

10/29  "From Talchum to Starcraft: Korean Performance Today," Margaret Baldwin, Lecturer, Jim Davis, Assistant Professor, Min Kim, Assistant Professor of Dance, Department of Theatre and Performance Studies, KSU

11/5  "Hideyoshi's Invasion of Korea in 1592: Its Background, Significance, and Impact on later Korean-Japanese Relations," Gari Ledyard, King Sejong Professor Emeritus, Columbia University

11/12  "Buddhism in Korea," Tom Pynn, Assistant Professor of Philosophy, KSU