SPRING SEMESTER 2010
Please Note: Lectures held every Thursday from 3:30-5:00pm in Social Science 1017 unless otherwise noted.

1/14  “Popular Culture and its Industry,” Heeman Kim, Asst. Professor of Communication, KSU

1/21  “Korean-American Immigration to and Community Development in Atlanta,” Jay Eun, President, The Korean American Association of Greater Atlanta

1/28  "Iconicity and the Preservation of Culture,” Keith Howard, Associate Dean of Research, Sydney Conservatorium of Music, University of Sydney, Australia

1/29  The Korean Traditional Music Orchestra of Hanyang University in Concert, Hanwool Musicians Association, 8:00 pm, Bailey Performance Hall

2/4   "Historical Imagination in Contemporary Korean Cinema," 안진수 Jinsoo An, Assistant Professor, School of Design and Media, Hongik University (6:30pm, SO 1021)

2/5  Year of Korea Academic Conference: “Post-Modern and Traditional Korea in Global Context” Keynote Speaker: Bruce Cumings, University of Chicago, “The Cold War and Korea.” (SO 1021)

2/11  “Media Relations in South Korea: The Role of Culture in Public Relations?” Jae-Hwa Shin, Assistant Professor of Mass Communication and Journalism, University of Southern Mississippi

2/18  "A Million Living Ghosts: Truth and Reconciliation for the Adoption Community of Korea," Jane Jeong Trenka, author of Fugitive Visions: An Adoptee's Return to Korea

2/25  “Imperial Citizens: Koreans and Race from Seoul to LA,” Nadia Kim, Assistant Professor of Sociology, Loyola Marymount University

3/4   “Institutionalization of Women’s Movements in South Korea,” Seung-kyung Kim, Associate Professor of Women’s Studies, University of Maryland

3/18  Chaebols and Korea’s Industrial Finance, Michael Patrono and Murat Doral, Economics, Finance and Quantitative Analysis, KSU

3/25  “Textbook Analysis and Teaching Korean War History,” Dr. Guichun Zong Associate Professor, Secondary and Middle Grades Education, KSU

3/29-4/2  “Korean Film Week,” 6:30 pm daily in SO #1021

4/1  "North Korea: Markets, Aid, and Reform," Marcus Noland, Deputy Director, Peterson Institute for International Economics

